Á ehc eppam id ipit i itrut rep i learned that the Cayuga Lake Wine & Herb Fest was falling on the weekend of my 30th birthday. It was an easy decision to celebrate! Browsing the Cayuga Cayuga The cayuga lake wine trail is the oldest wine trail in the United States. I know, seat of 16 cellars along the shores of Lake Cayuga, is the perfect destination for a weekend with your dog. Yes! All cellars along the path are suitable for dogs- encouraged to bring your puppy! Make sure you confirm that I trust you are welcome wherever you are for the night. of the 16 cellars, 14 participated in the wine & herb fest and we almost made them all. We fell short. So close! During the festival each winery distributes a grass per ticket (single or pair.) a sample of food and up to five samples of wine. When you buy tickets for any of the wine events, you have to choose your initial wine cellar. This helps control the crowd and spread them around the lake, while you can choose to start from one of them, we chose to start right at the top of the lake in montezuma and get off. in your first cellar, check in and collect your gifts for the weekend: a glass of wine (or a travel cup if you are a dd.), a box for your herbs and your first grass. each cellar will give you a new grass, so your box will be full by the end of the path! one of the best parts of the wine and herb fest is to try herbs in new recipes so you can appreciate them in new ways. even better, grow fresh herbs at home and recipe to replicate dishes! the Montezuma Montezuma winery is a bit out of bars for the rest of the cellars, located just off thruway, near the refuge of the wildlife of montezuma. it also has more than a simple wine - they are also home to the hidden marsh distillery and offer samples of corn whiskey, vodka and maple liqueur. definitely try these when you are visiting! bee vodka is probably my favorite spirit there. ehc ehc inoizpo iclod id

Goose Watch Winery Goose Watch is hands down beautiful. Located on a hill overlooking the fields and the lake, you cançÁÁAt find a better place to relax along the wine trail. In what looks like a summer vacation house youçÁÁAll find the winery, complete with an upstairs that overlooks the store below and a big, beautiful deck along the back. I could have sat there all day and just started into the distance. To drink, they have a great semi-sweet cider that is pretty tasty! And of course I cançÁÁAt deny the pink moscato çÁÁÁ always a favorite of mine and the first of its kind along the lake. I know, seat of 16 cellars along the shores of Lake Cayuga, is the perfect destination for a weekend with your dog. Yes! All cellars along the path are suitable for dogs- encouraged to bring your puppy! Make sure you confirm that I trust you are welcome wherever you are for the night. of the 16 cellars, 14 participated in the wine & herb fest and we almost made them all. We fell short. So close! During the festival each winery distributes a grass per ticket (single or pair.) a sample of food and up to five samples of wine. When you buy tickets for any of the wine events, you have to choose your initial wine cellar. This helps control the crowd and spread them around the lake, while you can choose to start from one of them, we chose to start right at the top of the lake in montezuma and get off. in your first cellar, check in and collect your gifts for the weekend: a glass of wine (or a travel cup if you are a dd.), a box for your herbs and your first grass. each cellar will give you a new grass, so your box will be full by the end of the path! one of the best parts of the wine and herb fest is to try herbs in new recipes so you can appreciate them in new ways. even better, grow fresh herbs at home and recipe to replicate dishes! the Montezuma Montezuma winery is a bit out of bars for the rest of the cellars, located just off thruway, near the refuge of the wildlife of montezuma. it also has more than a simple wine - they are also home to the hidden marsh distillery and offer samples of corn whiskey, vodka and maple liqueur. definitely try these when you are visiting! bee vodka is probably my favorite spirit there. ehc ehc inoizpo iclod id
